VAN DEUSEN FAMILY

PREFACE

THE sources of this compilation are chiefly the Doop and Trouw Boeken of the Reformed (Dutch) Churches at Albany, New York, Claverack, Kinderhook, Churchtown, Livingston and Kingston. These registers of baptisms and marriages have been very carefully examined, and are complete from 1685 to 1760, Albany; from the beginning to 1787, Claverack; —— to 1820, Churchtown; —— to 1780, Johnstown; —— to 1784, Kinderhook; and from 1660 to 1809, Kingston. In addition to the above sources of information, much valuable data have been obtained from the records of deeds, wills, mortgages, marriage and other contracts, powers of attorney, proceedings of magistrates, etc., found in the offices of the clerks of the cities and counties of Albany and New York; the early records and papers in the office of the Secretary of State, the Clerk of the Court of Appeals, Surrogates of the counties of Columbia, New York, Albany and Dutchess; Munsell's Annals and Collections of Albany; the works of Dr. O'Callaghan; the New York Historical collections; family records and papers; local histories, and gravestone inscriptions.

I wish, also, to acknowledge the great assistance rendered by Mr. Robert T. Van Deusen, of Stuyvesant, who has furnished the nucleus of this genealogy from notes gathered by him a few years ago.

The name Van Deusen is found in the early records spelled as Van Deusen, Vandeusen, Van duzen, Van deuse, Van Deussen, Van Dorsen, Van Dozer, Van Duee, Van Duesen, Van Dueser, Van Dueson, Vandueus, Van Dusan, Vanduse, Van Duusen, Van Deuzer, Van Duzer, Van Deursen, Van Deurse.

Owing to the fact that surnames were little used in the early days of the Dutch colonies, and the Christian names were so badly misspelled that they were scarcely recognizable, it has been difficult to trace the genealogical lines. This difficulty has been enhanced by the propensity manifested in families to use the same Christian names. Thus, "Isaac Rich," becomes in a few years Isaac I., to distinguish him from his son, Isaac II., and his grandchildren, Isaac III., IV., V., and VI. William, the son of Jacob, becomes William Jacobse to distinguish him from some other William, instead of using the surname.

Three classes of numbers are used, viz.:

I Consecutive. These figures begin with No. 1, and are found in and constitute the left-hand column of the book.

II Family. These are taken from the consecutive numbers and placed over the head of the family of the person they stand for in the consecutive column.

III Reference. These are also taken from the consecutive column and placed in parenthesis before certain names in order to show relationship and intermarriages.

VAN DEUSEN GENEALOGY

On the 13th of December, 1677, Paulus Martense Van Benthuysen conveyed by deed to Harme Janse Lyndrayer the same property in Rensselaerwyck heretofore conveyed to him by (4) Mattheus Abrahamse Van Deusen, by deed dated June 26, 1677, of which the following is a copy:

The said property was situated in the City of Albany, on the west side of and fronting on Broadway, north of Maiden Lane, extending back to same street and lying between Maiden Lane and Steuben Street.

The following are the conditions of sale of chattels to be held in Rensselaerwyck on the day and year therein stated on which the administrator of the estate of Philip Hendrickse (Brouwer) "proposes to sell some horses and cattle, together with a horse-mill, as it stands, to be paid for on the 15th of July, in this year, 1664, in good merchantable beaver skins; the auction fees to become a charge to the buyer and payable as above." At which sale (4) Mattheus Abrahamse (Van Deusen) bought a cow for one hundred and eighteen florins, for the payment of which Cornelis Teunisse Bos went his "surety and principal"; and Mattheus Abrahamse (Van Deusen) on his part pledged himself as surety for Cornelis Bos on the same day, for the payment of one hundred and twelve guilders for the purchase of the running works of a horse-mill.

Samson Benson removed from Albany to New York City about 1696. "He is supposed to have lived on 'Pottbakers Hill' (now John Street, between William and Gold Streets)." (Talcott.) Several of his children are named in his will, dated July 20, 1726.

"The late Judge Egbert Benson, of Revolutionary fame, and the late Egbert Benson, of New York and New Utrecht, are among his descendants." (Bergen.)

Dirck Benson, the father of Samson, who married (24) Tryntje Van Deusen, was in Claverack as early as 1676. On April 19, 1675, Gerrit Slichtenhoost agreed to sell a piece of land to Dirck and his brother Johannes. In the following year, on June 20, Dirck Benson contracted with Claes Jansen Van Baeren (Beuren) to build a house at Claverack 20 feet square. Captain Johannes Benson, the son of Dirck, who married, Feb. 2, 1680, (22) Lysbet, daughter of (4) Mattheus Abrahamse Van Deusen and Helena, probably resided there at that time. In 1689 he was a resident of Claverack, and was appointed in March of that year Captain of a Company of Militia, when an attack was expected from the French and Indians. In the following year he removed to Harlem.

Munsell says that Abraham, who married Jacomyntje Van Schoonhoven, was a son of Jacob; Sahler places Abraham among the children of Matthew.

Catalyntje, wife of (5) Jacob Van Deusen, was a daughter of Claas Van Eslant, an undertaker in New Amsterdam. In 1677, being about to return to Holland, Catalyntje got a certificate from the "Commissarissen" at Albany, that she was the daughter of Claas Van Eslant, deceased, undertaker in New Amsterdam, and that her object in returning to Holland was to collect certain legacies due her there. Her husband and her brother, Claas, also gave her powers of attorney to collect the legacies left them by their uncle Harmanus Antonides Vander Linde, minister in his lifetime at Naerden.

"Appeared before me Johannes Provoost, secretary of Albany, and in the presence of Jan Verbeeck and Jacob Schermerhooven, magistrates of the jurisdiction of Albany

"Acknowledged before me,
"J. PROVOOST, Secretary."

By the honorable, the commissaries of Albany, colony Renselaerswyck and Schaernhechtady, etc., whereas Catelyntje Van Eslant, wife of (5) Jacob Abrahamse (Van Deusen), Cuyper, (cooper) proposes to depart from here for Holland, to collect and receive there some monies, coming to her and her brother by way of inheritance, and bequest from her late mother's uncle, Harmanus Antonides Vander Linde, in his life time minister at Naerden, to which end she has solicited of us a certificate of testimonial, which we cannot refuse: therefore, we declare that she is a daughter of Claes Van Eslandt (sic), deceased, having been in his life time undertaker (aenspreecker) and gravedigger at New York, and her mother's name Willenstie Harpers Vander Leinde.

Given under our hands and seals, in Albany, the 25th of September, and in the nine and twentieth year of the reign of our sovereign lord Charles the Second, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, defender of the faith, 1677.

(This paper is a copy without signatures.)

Appeared before me Robert Livingstone, secr., etc., and in presence of the honorable magistrates, Mr. Philip Pieterse Schuyler and Mr. Richard Pretty, etc., Claes Van Eslandt, and (5) Jacob Abrahamse (Van Deusen), citizens of Albany, who declared that they had, in accordance with advices from Harmanus Vander Linde, dwelling in the Hage, in Holland, appointed and empowered Catelyntje Van Eslandt, wife of the aforesaid Jacob Abrahamse (Van Deusen), and sister of the aforesaid Claes Van Eslandt, specially to demand, collect and receive in Holland, etc., her and her aforesaid brother's portion of the inheritance and bequest, left for them by her mother's uncle, named Harmanus Antonides Vander Linde, in his life time minister at Naerden, and acquittance to execute for receipts, and for claims to caveeren (sic), and further, to do, perform and execute all things which may be needful and her judgment may suggest; promising at all times to hold good all that shall be done and performed in the aforesaid matter by their aforesaid sister and wife, as their attorney without any contradiction.

Done in Albany, in America, on the 25th of September, and in the nine and twentieth year of the reign of our sovereign lord, Charles the Second, by the grace of God, King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, defender of the faith, Annoque Domini, 1677.

(This paper is also a copy without signatures.)

From the minutes of Ref. (Dutch) Church at Albany, it appears that, in 1687, Albert Ryckman and (5) Jacob Abrahamse Van Deusen were in office. On the 17th Jan., 102 guilders were received from the poor taxes at Kinderhook. Annetje Barensen was buried at an expense of 142 guilders. Domine Schaet's house was repaired out of the poor fund. In June was purchased of Peter Schuyler, major, a waey, for which was paid 2520 guilders, and in September another sum of 560 guilders was given to Dom. Dellius, on account of this waey, and in November, 48 g. more. The names of David Schuiler (sic), Gerrit Reyersen (whose daughter, Mary, married (51) Harpert, the son of (5) Jacob Abrahamse) and Egbert Tunissen (Van Vechten) appear for the first time among the Consistory.

In 1686, the deacons were Jan Lansingh and Jochim Staets. Their record begins a new book, which extends to 1715. For the first time we find the first two months of the year entered as of two years, thus 168$\frac{5}{6}$, to correspond with the custom of the English.

Dr. Van Dyck was still physician to the poor at 150 guilders a year ($18.75) in wampum. In August of this year they loaned the city authorities 4012:3 at 6 per cent. Six pounds of nails were purchased of Jan Tysen for the church at Kinderhook. A large amount was expended for building materials, in November, and mention is made of the domine's house and the deacons' or alms house. The elders of the church borrowed 248:18 of the deacons, 168 gilders were disbursed to Mary Jochimse on security. The annual certificate is signed by Gideon Schaats, Gr. Dell, Jacob Schermerhorren, Adriaen G. Papendorp, Dirck Wessels, (Ten Broeck) Albert Ryckman, and (5) Jacob Abrahamsen (Van Deusen).

(203) Johannes Van Deusen took the oath of allegiance to the State of New York, June 10, 1777, before Pr. Van Zandt, Major, and therein agreed "in all things to do his duty as a good and faithful subject of the said State."

At the time of the border riots in 1755, (203) Johannes Van Deusen was living on leased land in the town of Taghkanic.

His father, (169) Robert, was a resident of the town of Ancram and also held a life-long lease from Robert Livingston.

Owing to frequent disturbances in the border towns there issued a proclamation under the hand and seal of the Hon. George Clinton, Capt. Gen. and Govr. in Chief of the Province of New York and Territories thereon, depending in America, Vice-Admiral of the same and Admiral of the White Squadron of his Majesty's fleet, to arrest rioters in the Manor of Livingston.

Whereas several encroachments have lately been made by the Inhabitants of the Provinces of Massachusetts Bay and in New Hampshire, upon the Lands and Possessions of divers of his Majesty's subjects, holding the same by Virtue of letters Patent under the great Seal of this Province, on pretense that the said Lands are included within the said two other Provinces.

And Whereas it appears that some person or persons pretending to be officers of the government of the Massachusetts-Bay, came into the Manor of Livingston in this Province on or about the nineteenth of this Instant, and with the aid and assistance of Josiah Loomis, William Webb, John Hallenbeck son of Michael Hallenbeck, Joseph Arcourt, Jonathan Younglove, and David Picksley, and divers other Persons whose names are not known, in a riotous manner and with force entered the House of (169) Robert Vanduersen in the said Manor of Livingston, and by force took, bound and carried away the said Robert Vanduersen and his Son (203) Johannis, out of the said Manor of Livingston, on order to confine them in some Goal of the said government of Massachusetts-Bay, pretending that they acted under a Warrant or Authority from that Government for a Trespass committed by the said Robert Vanduersen and his Son Johannis, on Lands lying within the said Manor and Although its entrance with the said Manor lies within this Province, and was granted under the Great Seal of the same and by virtue thereof has been long in the quiet and peaceable Possession of Robert Livingston, Junior, Esquire, and his Ancestors, and of Persons claiming under them.

I have therefore thought fit by and with the advise of his Majesty's Council of this Province, to issue this Proclamation, hereby in his Majesty's Name strictly charging and Commanding the Sheriffs of the counties of Albany and Dutchess or either of them and the Constable and all other officers in the said Counties jointly or severally, forthwith to apprehend and take all and every the persons here in before named, and concerned in the Riot aforesaid, and all and every such other person or persons as may appear to have been in ways aiding, abetting or assisting therein, and they and every of them to commit to the Goals of the said Counties of Albany and Dutchess or either of them, there to be kept in safe Custody, until delivered by due course of Law:

And for preventing the like Riotous proceedings for a future, as much as may be, The said Sheriffs and other officers, are hereby in like manner, also strictly charged and Commanded to apprehend and take all persons, who shall hereafter under color or paetremen of Title or Authority from the said Government of the Massachusetts Bay, or New Hampshire, enter upon and take Possession of any Lands granted under the Great Seal of this Province, and they also to commit to Goal as aforesaid, there to be kept in safe Custody until delivered as aforesaid. And if the whole power of the said Counties or either of them be necessary for the better putting the same in execution, then to Summon the aid of the same accordingly. And all his majesty's subjects within the said Counties are hereby required to give due assistance to the said sheriff and other officers, when Summoned for the purposes aforesaid, for the several Penalties the Law can inflict, for their neglect or disobedience herein.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms At Fort George in the City of New York the 28 day of July in the year of our Lord 1753 and of his majesty's Reign the 27th.

By his Excellency's Command.

Ancram, Oct. 29, 1755.

In a letter of Peter Livingston's to his father concerning the boundary troubles, dated at the Manor Livingston the 31st day of Oct., 1755, he writes as follows:

Yesterday I went with Mr. Decker, our Overseer, according to your Order, to Tackkaneck to the House of John Van Deusen & there I found him turned out of his house with all his family & Benjamin Franckland & his Son with 6 men more in it, when I came to the door with Decker & Robert Van Deusen old Franckland ordered the men to Kock their Guns, I told them I did not come to fight with them but to talk with them, and ask them By what order or Authority they turned the man out of his house they say'd by orders of the Court of Boston, & that they would not go out of the house till they were forced out by the Barels of Musquets or till Governor Shirly sent an order for them to go. They likewise told them that the gentleman that signed their orders was Collo. Partridge, and Collo. Dwight &c. I remains yours Dutifull son

PETER LIVINGSTON.

Derick Spoor told me that the Chef man was Benjamin Frankland he likewise told me that 60 famileses was going to settle their.

Mr. Livingston, under date of 9th Nov., 1755, at Albany, writes to his Excellency Gov. Hardy concerning, a "company of New England men of the Massachusetts Bay to the number of 50 to 75 come last week to Taghkanic in my Manor, a place by estamation about 16 miles East of Hudson's River, that they kept a Garrison at the House of Michial Hallenbeck, one of my Tenants on a leese for life and in the House of Johannes Van Deusen another of my tenants, who they had dispossessed and turned out with all his family the week before, that they were to begin on Fryday last, to run lines to lay out a Township and lay it into Lotts & settle it as fast as they could" to the end that "a Speedy Stop" may be put to those riotes Proceedings. Again Mr. Livingston writes from the Manor Livingston, date of Nov. 23, 1755, to his Excellency, Gov. Hardy, explaining his reasons for detaining one Joseph Pain in Albany Goal in reprisal for the unjust and violent procedure taken by the Deputy Sherif of Massachusetts in dispossessing Robert Van Deusen and his son Johannes, two tenants of his out of their house and who were tied upon horses and carried away and committed to Springfield Goal where he was obliged to "git suritoes" to prevent their Laying in a Goal, and who were afterwards adjudged in the Court of Springfield to pay 38 odd lbs. lawful money for supposed trespass and 14 lbs. of said money for court charges, which sums according to Mr. Livingston had already been paid by him to the utmost farthing. He therefore declines to order the Sheriff of Albany County to "sett Pain at Liberty" without having satisfaction made him.

The will of Gerrit Reyertse, yeoman, was proved Feb. 15, 1693. Annetje Reyertse, his wife, left a will, proved May 8, 1712, in which she names Marrytje, wife of Harpert Van Deusen.

Harpert Jacobse Van Deusen and William Claesen Groesbeck were deacons of the Ref. Prot. Dutch Church, Albany, 1701. They contributed to the magistrates of Albany, 120 guilders for the support of Jacob de Wilde, Jonge. Domine Lydius's expenses from Amsterdam were paid in full, 503 : 9; and the passage of Dom. Freeman, 560 g. The receipts were 3481 g., and the disbursements 2880 : 2.

In 1700, Johannes Cuyler and Evert Bancker were deacons of the Church at Albany. The collections taken up in the church on the first Sunday in January amounted to 218 g. 14 s. John Kidnie paid 54 g. for half a year's rent of the east end of the poor house, which seems to have been vacant by the decrease in the number of the poor; the old names having all disappeared from the list. It appears that Hendrick Roseboom received 400 g. from the city and county besides his salary from the church; and he was voted 50 guilders extra pay for services as voorlezer during the time the church was without a pastor before the arrival of Dom. Uncella, which seems to have been on the 16th of April, 1699. On the 15th of February, Ryseck, widow of Gerrit Swart, the last of the church poor, died, and was buried on the 17th, the onkosten of which was as follows: 3 dry boards for the coffin, 7 : 10; ¾ lb. nails, 1 : 10; making the coffin, 249.; cartage, 103.; a half vat and an anker of good beer, 27 g.; 1 gal. rum, 21 g.; 6 gall. Madeira for women and men, 84 g.; Sugar and cruyery, 5 g.; 150 sugar cakes, 15 g.; tobacco and pipes, 4:10; Hendrick Roseboom, doodgraver, 30 g.; use of the pall, 12 g.; total, 232 g. A claim of Roseboom of 12 g. for inviting to the funeral (prelendeerde voor't aenspreken buyten d' stad) was paid; but it was regarded as an extortionate charge, and the consistory ordered that the doodgraver should thereafter have from the deacons 30 guilders and no more, for like services. Mary, wife of Jacob Lookermans, was paid 6 g. for assistance (handry kingh) at the burial, and Marritje, widow of Harme Lievertse, who had long received a monthly stipend for nursing and board, was paid the same as for a full month, as was the custom, 36 g. A statement of the Ryseck Swart during four years is given, amounting to 2229 g. 10 s., and she is credited with effects, consisting of silver ware, jewelry, etc., and a lot on the plain (tuyn erffop de plyn) which were appraised by the patroon and Jacob Turck at 644 g. 10 s., which in seawant was 1585 g. On the 20th of July Dom. Johannes Lydius and Dom. Bernardus Freerman arrived (the latter the second pastor at Schenectady). On Sunday the 21st they both assisted in the services (elck eens gepredikt), and on the following Sunday Dom. Lydius preached his introductory sermon. New improvements were made on the domine's house, and a new turned bedstead was purchased for Dom. Lydius at 40 g. A payment of 160 g. was made by Nanningh and Frederick Harmense towards their saw mill on the Bevers kil. A payment of 506 g. was made upon the expenses of Dom. Lydius from Antwerp. Dr. Porter, in his address at the centennial celebration of the Claverack (Dutch) Church in 1867, of which he was then pastor, says: "The Van Deusen family is among the oldest, tracing its beginnings back to an ancestor who built the brick house near the creek, on the south shoulder of Beighraft's mountain." This is said to be one of the four earliest houses in the town. The name appears often in the town records. At the first town meeting, held June 6, 1837, (282) John T. Van Deusen was chosen Commissioner of Highways; (286) Abraham T., Overseer of the Poor; and William, Commissioner of Schools. The latter was also the first Pathmaster of District No. 6. Nicholas Van Deusen, as well as his father James, died at the home of James Nicholas Van Deusen, his son, at West Taghkanic, which is now in the possession of the two unmarried daughters of James Nicholas Van Deusen, who also died there; thus three generations of the heads of the Van Deusen family have died at this homestead.

The house is an unpretentious two-story frame dwelling, situated on the slope overlooking the little hamlet of West Taghkanic. It contains many quaint and curious relics of bygone days, among them being an old corner cupboard which is still undespoiled of its old blue Staffordshire ware and many small pieces of "family silver" and cherished heirlooms.

One of the bedrooms contains a tall four-poster bedstead draped and valanced, a curious relic of a century ago. The headstone of Nicholas Van Deusen, in the cemetery at Johnstown, N. Y., contains the following inscription:

> "Death, King of Terrors! Terrorless thou art
> To him o'er whom Religion casts her shield."

Robert Nicholas Van Deusen, as a young man looking about to secure a position to better himself, furnished a man to assist his father in his store and undertook the teaching of a school in the neighborhood where he was born. He afterwards served as a clerk in the store of Forrest & Van Deusen at Johnstown.

Robert Nicholas Van Deusen entered into the flour-mill and general merchandising business with Abram F. Miller, as partner, in the town of Ancram. When Mr. Miller retired from business, Mr. Van Deusen secured the store and mill, on Punch Brook, built by Livingston in 1775, which was situate at Scotchtown near Ancram Lead Mines, then a portion of Livingston Manor. On the death of Col. Robert Livingston, this property became portion of the estate which passed to George D. Livingston, who sold to Mr. Van Deusen the life lease under which he held his property. At the first town meeting held in the town of Gallatin, April 6, 1830, he was chosen an Inspector of Schools. Afterwards, owing to the result of exposure, his health failed, which incapacitated him for business; he therefore decided to retire, and sold out his business and devoted himself to preparing his son, Edwin Holmes, for admission to the Academy at Claverack. About 1839 he bought property at Claverack to be conveniently near the academy. When his son had finished his academic course and entered Williams College, Mr. Van Deusen removed from Claverack to Pittsfield, Mass., to give his daughter educational advantages. In the year 1849 he purchased property at Stuyvesant Landing of Hon. Benjamin F. Butler, Secretary of State under President Van Buren, and resided there until his death. Mr. Van Deusen was a man of quiet and gentle manners and beloved and trusted by all who knew him.

In April they paid Domine Du Bois for pastoral services and expenses, 556 guilders. Abram Kuyler was paid 141 guilders for cleaning the church. The accounts run into another year without the customary annual audit. In March Domine Vos was paid 400 guilders for services. In April £75, or 3000 guilders, was paid for a draft on Holland to pay for the call of a new domine. In October Domine Vos was paid another 400 guilders. Johannes Van Alen was paid 6 guilders for the passage of Domine Du Bois from Esopus, and Luykes Wyngaert 129 guilders for taking him back. William and Johannes Claessen received 401:10 voor het maecken van de kerck (by which it would seem that they had already begun the building of the new church, which was completed three years later). In April Samuel Beyiert and Jan Cruger were paid 1382 guilders on account of Domine Van Driessen, and in June he was paid £22:100, or 900 guilders. Abram Van der Poel paid one year's rent of water for his mill on the Bever's Kil, and Daniel Bradt 106 guilders for the use of water for his mill on the same stream (twee jaer water loop van syn molen). At the close of the year 1712, these brethren rendered their statement for three years—receipts, 15807:16; expenditures, 13029:18. The following names are attached to the audit.

797 Anna Margaret, b. May 17, 1862; d. Feb. 5, 1864.

Edwin H. Van Deusen, A.M., M.D., of Kalamazoo, Kalamazoo County, was born Aug. 29, 1828, at Livingston, Columbia County, N. Y. His father, Robert N. Van Deusen, was also a native of Livingston, and was by occupation a merchant and miller. His mother, Catherine Best, was a daughter of John Best, a farmer of Columbia County. Our subject attended the district schools in the neighborhood of his home during his boyhood, and took a preparatory course of three years at Claverack Academy, now known as the Hudson River Institute, subsequently entering Williams College, from which he graduated at the age of twenty. Three years later this college conferred upon him the degree of Master of Arts. He entered the College of Physicians and Surgeons at New York City in 1848, and graduated therefrom two years later, and immediately accepted a position on the staff of the New York Hospital, where he remained for three years. In 1853 he received the appointment of first assistant physician at the New York State Lunatic Asylum, at Utica, which he held until 1858. By an act of the Legislature of this State in 1848, provision was made for the establishment of the Michigan Asylum for the Insane, and in 1855 Dr. Van Deusen was appointed to the position of medical superintendent thereof. The locating commissioner selected ten acres of ground in the immediate vicinity of the then village of Kalamazoo. This property was afterwards sold, and one hundred and fifty-seven acres were purchased where the institution now stands. Dr. Van Deusen frequently visited Kalamazoo during the years 1855, 1856, and 1857, and in the fall of 1858, resigning his position at the Utica Asylum, of which he was then assistant medical superintendent, removed to Kalamazoo. Up to this time the appropriations by the Legislature for asylum purposes had been insufficient to carry out the plans adopted, and in Feb., 1859, Dr. Van Deusen, with the active assistance of Dr. Foster Pratt, who then represented the district in the Lower House of the State Legislature, secured the first large appropriation, the amount being $100,000. On plans made by Dr. Van Deusen, active building operations under his supervision were immediately commenced, continuing the work already begun, and the institution was formally opened Aug. 29, 1859, although a number of patients had been received during the two preceding months. The center building and the contiguous half of what is now the south wing of the female department were then finished; the south wing was completed in the next two years, and the north wing from six to seven years later, while what is now the male department was put in operation in 1877. Probably no better success has been met with in the history of public buildings of this character than that attained by Dr. Van Deusen in this work.

Possessed of a thorough knowledge of its requisites, a wonderful grasp of detail, a brilliant executive ability, his name up to the time of his retirement was a synonym of success in a broad field of labor, to which our most learned profession has devoted some of its most brilliant members, and in which opinions have widely differed—a field covering the whole question as to the best methods of caring for and treating the insane. He held the position of medical superintendent until Feb., 1878, when failing health and strength, produced by excessive labor, compelled his resignation. Previous to his resignation he had served as a member of the commission appointed to select the location and to superintend the construction of the Eastern Michigan Asylum for the Insane, which has since been erected at Pontiac; and in 1853 he acted on similar commissions in connection with the Northern Michigan Asylum for the Insane, since built at Traverse City. In 1881 he was appointed a member of the Michigan State Board of Corrections and Charities, which office he resigned in 1885. His health and his tastes have not permitted an active continuance of the practice of his profession, and since severing his connection as superintendent of the asylum he has lived a quiet life of literary leisure at his pleasant home in Kalamazoo. He is an active member of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church, and one of its vestrymen, and was chairman of its Building Committee, and supervised its construction, the work being completed in 1855. July 22, 1858, he was united in marriage to Miss Cynthia A. Wendover, daughter of the late John Thompson Wendover, Esq., a merchant of Stuyvesant (formerly Kinderhook), on the Hudson. They have one son, Robert T., born April 26, 1859, who is married, and at present resides at Albany, N. Y. An old friend of our subject delineates his qualities as a man, a physician, and an official, in terse and expressive phrases: "He brought to the business of his life a healthy though slender physique, an active mind, well stored with the knowledge of his chosen profession, an unsullied integrity, a strong will softened by courteous manners, and admirable executive ability. While yet a young man at Utica he soon reached, as a practitioner and writer, the front rank in his specialty. Transferred to Kalamazoo, he made the plans for both asylum buildings, superintended the details of their construction, made them models from which several Western States have drawn their designs, and established for the institution and himself a brilliant reputation for successful administration and beneficent results. After twenty years of self-sacrificing labor which nearly cost his life, he retired to well-earned repose and literary leisure with the consciousness of duty well done. His official career has not a taint of reproach. He was pure in impulse and pure in action, tender and sensitive as a woman in the presence of affliction, but cool, resolute, and brave in action. His twenty years of official life in the Michigan Asylum will be always remarkable for successful administration, and for the fruitful results of skilfully applied science. Fortunately, he yet lives to be a blessing to others, and to be blessed by the thousands who have been restored by his agency to home, to friends, to usefulness, and to reason."

By Mary Ann Whitbeck:

838 JOHN, b. 1820; d. 1874; m. 1st, Adelaide Burroughs, 1841; 2d, Harriet S. Duxbury, 1849.

John Van Deusen was early thrown upon his own resources. His first business venture was at the village of Johnstown, in the town of Livingston, where he was one of the first to engage in active trade at that point, selling his goods in an old shed. About 1800 he built a storehouse in which he followed the merchandising business for forty years. At one time he was in partnership with Forest in a general country store. The latter afterwards retired and Reed became a member of the firm, and the business was conducted in 1830 under the firm name of Van Deusen & Reed. In 1820 he owned and operated the flouring-mills known as the "Good Hope" mills, now known as the Bingham mills, and carried on an extensive business, also, in real estate. His success in life won him the nickname of "Johnny Wax."

Mr. Van Deusen was Town Clerk from 1805 to 1812; Postmaster at one time; also served as Supervisor from 1812 to 1820. In 1823 he was elected a Member of Assembly in the State Legislature. His chief amusement was horseback riding, in which he excelled. By reason of his superb horsemanship and commanding presence he was early chosen an officer in the State Militia, in the cavalry branch of the service. He was for many years a Director in the National Hudson River Bank at Hudson. He was a man well known and respected throughout the county for strict integrity, excellent judgment, and remarkable business success. (50) Willem Jacobsen (Van Deusen) was an alderman from the Second Ward in the City of Albany, 1711.

There is a deed, dated 1733, given by (51) Harpert Jacobsen van deuse (Deusen) to the Commonality of Albany, of a certain piece of vacant land, adjoining his residence, and bounded generally in front by the public highway, and on the right by the adjoining property owner. Said land was presumably desired and used for the benefit of the public.

The W. Commissaries assembled in consequence of the arrival of the new Minister, Dom. Godefridus Dellius, who reached here on the 2d. instant pursuant to the request and letters of this Court to the Venerable Classis of Amsterdam.

And whereas by consent and approval of this Commonality a second Domine is sent for to assist the old Dom: Schaets, it is therefore resolved to call the Congregation together to enquire of them in a friendly manner how much they will from their own Liberality and good inclination contribute to the maintenance of the said Dom. Godefridus Dellius.
